Hey Hey Member,

Pretty slim pickins this month for flying photos or news. The normal barage of Weekend phone calls to organize flying at the field is not happening due to the weather. Here's hoping we get some calm Spring weekends soon !

See you all at the field.

and pines for a warm Spring day with green grass, french fries and brownies. The kind of day we used to have where the wind doesn't blow crap into your fur.

A meeting was called to order . . .

March 9- 7pm -- at the train station- NOT.

The Treasurer reported growing balances as member dues continue to flow in.

An AMA update was discussed relative to the FAA proposed new rules. Members had received AMA emails and some had already contacted their representatives in Congress as suggested. We will keep ourselves informed and hopefully members will participate in the process.

Club events were discussed. The Slow Survivable Combat is scheduled for Saturday, May 21. Dennis Blades will provide details about volunteers needed.

IMAC update has indicated an interest in a September 11 event, but so far there are not official details.

Eric expressed interest in doing another Fun Fly and will be looking for a date to discuss at a future meeting.

Jack Rosemere indicated that the Sanction for the Jim Coll Stunt Contest had been applied for but not received. Those dates are August 13-14.

The key situation with the Train Station has caused the club to make alternate backup arrangements with Pizza Palace in Hurlock to have club meetings when needed. Members have been having a quick dinner there for some time anyway, and the owners are happy to accommodate. On this particular evening, a group of 12 members had assembled at 5:30 for pizza and sandwiches. By 6:35 it was obvious that our food was going to be delayed. So it was decided to send Jack to gather those members who were starting to appear outside the Train Station and bring them over to have the meeting with extra cheese and peperoni.

The sole waitress was handling the whole place, including manning the phones where they were experiencing a record pizza delivery night. In the end, it was great fun despite having to enjoy very slow service and mass confusion as members pulled up chairs, ordered and totally confused the waitress. A very generous member picked up the bill for all the food and the waitress received a generous tip amounting to probably 75% from money collected from the rest of us. Since I was in charge of the tip money - I received a tearful hug from the astonished and exhausted waitress. Evidently, she had been run off the road on the way to work and was in the middle of a bad day when we showed up and the phones started ringing off the hook.

It isn't what happens to us that matters but what we choose to do about it.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:45 pm.
