Hey Hey Member,

This is project building and airplane fixing season. Try to find time to check things over before we get back into flying every good day that comes along.

The economy is starting to get better, and we all should be starting to feel it. At work, I know that we have 3 real estate projects which are working their way through the banks with favorable prognosis and one loan already gone to settlement. Members continue to renew, which is the measure we use at the club. Take a look around at what the club has to offer members, and please speak up if you have an idea for an activity that the club should be looking at. We will have the IMAC and Jim Coll memorial stunt contest - those should produce some cash for the club as well as much needed variety. We are still hoping to have a fun fly activity and some others depending on member interest.

If you haven't yet renewed, please consider doing it now before you forget. I'll soon be removing names from the newsletter list for those who aren't current. See you at the field one day soon !

A meeting was called to order ... not

January 12- 7pm -- at Pizza Palace.

The town of Hurlock reported that there have been a couple of groups that leave a mess in the train station (not us) and so the Mayor has changed the lock and will not be giving out keys. Although it would have been great to have known that before our meeting was supposed to start, we think we have things under control now.

So, those who did show up for the meeting were allowed to assemble across the street at Pizza Palace for a very short meeting.

August 13-14 has been set for the Annual Jim Coll Memorial Stunt Contest. Sept 11-12 is set for the Annual IMAC Memorial.

We discussed the billing problems with Pearsons Comfort Stations and the possibility of changing vendors or upgrading to a unit with a sink for hand washing. The members decided to make no changes at this time.

Local hobby stores were discussed. Hobby Town in Easton has been making progress in stocking items needed in our hobby, and several members have noticed. Please continue to visit the local stores in Easton and Seaford if you value having them available. And don't be shy in letting them know what you need to find on the shelf when you go in.

We discussed having another Fun Fly event and another Scale Picnic. Eric was going to give the Fun Fly some further thought and we will pick some dates once we get further into the flying season.
